9/12/05

Defendant, M-I L.L.C. ("M-I"), pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d), hereby files this Opening Brief in Support of its Motion to Withdraw the Reference of Adversary Proceeding No. 04-50542, and would respectfully show the Court as follows:

I.

SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

1. M-I is entitled to an order withdrawing the reference of this adversary proceeding to the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d). Specifically, M-I is entitled to an order of withdrawal because M-I has filed a timely jury demand, and the Bankruptcy Court cannot conduct a jury trial of the case without the consent of the parties. M-I has not provided its consent and will not do so.

II.

STATEMENT OF FACTS/PROCEDURAL HISTORY

2. The IT Group, Inc. and its affiliated companies filed their bankruptcy petition on January 16, 2002. The bankruptcy case was assigned to this Court. M-I did not file a proof of claim or participate in the bankruptcy case.

3. On January 9, 2004, Plaintiff, The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors of The IT Group, Inc. filed a complaint in this adversary proceeding seeking return under Sections 547 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code of an alleged avoidable transfer made by The IT Group to M-I.

4. On May 20, 2004, counsel for Plaintiff signed a Certificate of Service stating he mailed a copy of the summons and complaint on May 4, 2004 by regular, first class mail to M-I at an address identified as 345 Superior Blvd., Unit 1, Mississauga, ON, Canada L5T 2L6. M-I does not maintain an office at the stated address and never received a copy of the summons or Complaint from Plaintiff.

5. On November 9, 2004, a default judgment was entered against M-I in the amount of $12,974.40. M-I did not know of the complaint, default judgment proceedings, or resulting default judgment until after July 28, 2005

6. Contemporaneously with the filing of this motion, M-I filed its original answer in which it made a jury demand. The answer was filed in conjunction with a motion to vacate the default judgment as void. As of the date of this motion, the Bankruptcy Court has neither recommended nor opposed withdrawal of the reference. M-I has filed no counterclaims.

III.

ARGUMENT

7. A preference suit under Sections 547 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code is subject to a jury trial if the defendant has not subjected himself to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court. In Re Clay, 35 F.3d 190 (5th Cir. 1994). M-I has not filed a proof of claim or subjected itself to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court. M-I has demanded a jury trial and refuses to consent to trial of the case by the Bankruptcy Court.

8. As stated by the Supreme Court, an "action to recover an alleged fraudulent conveyance of a determinate sum of money [would have been an action] at law in 18th-century England." Granfinanciera, S.A. v. Nordberg, 492 U.S. 33, 46-47 (1989). Plaintiff seeks a judgment for a sum certain, a legal remedy, and requires no "relief of a kind historically available only in equity . . ." 9 Charles A. Wright & Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure § 2311 (1971).

9. Under Granfinanciera, an action at law "carries with it the Seventh Amendment's guarantee of a jury trial." Granfinanciera, 492 U.S. at 55. Thus, in Clay, the Fifth Circuit issued mandamus to the District Court to withdraw the reference and try the preference suit with a jury.

10. Under 28 U.S.C. §157(d), "The district court may withdraw, in whole or in part, any case or proceeding referred under this section, on its own motion or on timely motion of any party, for cause shown." Cause has been shown, as stated above. This motion is made timely.

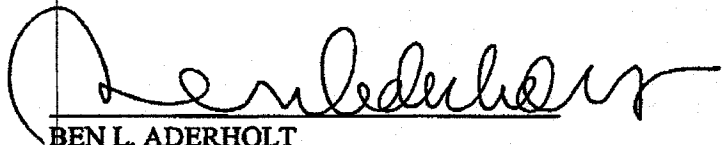

IV.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth herein, M-I L.L.C. respectfully requests that this Court enter an order withdrawing the reference of Adversary Proceeding No. 04-50542, that a status conference be scheduled in the federal district court to discuss the schedule and trial of this cause there, and for such other and further relief, both at law and in equity, to which M-I L.L.C. may show itself justly entitled.

Dated: August 20, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,
